Message from Don Ranck on May 15: I want all my friends at WHMC to know that I have been getting radiation treatments at Ann Barshinger Center, usually early mornings, for very early suspected prostate cancer. I have 7 more weeks to go. The past few Sundays I have been visiting Salford Mennonite Church, and John Ruth's SS class; or Indian Creek COB with Sandy's sister Char (and Leon) Moyer; or Calvary Church Lansdale (on Sundays when Sandy works) with her son Kevin and my long-time from childhood friend Glenn (and LeeAnn Bergey) Esbenshade.

Reminder: On May 17 the following notice was sent: "Witmer Heights will be collecting money (May 20 and 27) to help the Don Ranck family recover from the fire. Please mark the offering as "fire recovery" and place it in the offering. Today (May 27) is the final day. The first $1000 will be matched with grant money from Everence."

~Nelson Okanya, EMM President, sent a letter of invitation for Witmer Heights and First Deaf to attend the commissioning service for Johanna Hoffer on July 8 at 6:30 pm. at the Oakwood Chapel at Black Rock Retreat.

~Mark your calendars. The Lancaster County Park pavilion has been reserved for Sunday, September 9th to host the churches in the Lancaster, Lititz and Mellinger districts. This event is an invitation for the congregations of these three districts to gather for a time of worship, fellowship, and food. Details and time to be announced at a later date.
